Day 3: Tarangire National Park- Sangaiwe Tented camp

After Breakfast, You driver guide will sit down for safari briefing. He will lay down the Map for a good orientation of the country and the entire safari. From there, you will load up your vehicle to Tangare National Park after breakfast. On your way, you will pass through Arusha town for a quick tour and last minute shopping for some snacks and cold drinks at Shoppers supermarket. Then drive for 1.5 hours to Tarangire National park. After acquiring entry permit, your full day game drive will begin.

Tarangire National Park is somewhat like a "mini Serengeti" with open plains, acacia woodlands, its own mini migration of wildebeest, and often large herds of elephant. This park has the highest population density of elephant as compared to anywhere else in Tanzania. There are more than 550 bird species around this park which makes it the best destination for the bird watcher.

Overnight: Sangaiwe Tented camp or similar

Meals: DBL (Dinner Breakfast and Lunch)

Day 8: Sengeti National Park (Seronera-central)- Hippo trail luxury camp

Today we will depart for an early morning game With Lunch box to maximize our chances to see enough wildlife in Central Serengeti. Central Serengeti has lots of waterholes and rivers with an abundance of wildlife, including buffalo, giraffe, impala and Grant's gazelle. Lions are common and often found on a kill. Leopards are common in the Serengeti, but much harder to spot as they like to hide-but central Seronera is sometimes the spot to find a leopard in a tree. We will also visit the Seronera visitor center, which has a short trail around the Kopjes, often with hyrax sitting on the displays, and sometimes monkeys, warthogs, mongoose too.

Meals: BLD

Accommodation: Hippo Trails Luxury camp

Day 9: En route Back to Arusha.

You will say goodbye the lodge staff and enjoy your last game drive en route toward Ngorongoro and back to Arusha for your evening flight back to Zanzibar. Once in Zanzibar, our Serengeti Pride guide liaison, will meet you at the airport and take to your hotel around Stone Town.
